Hello, I'm Sophia! I have the most amazing big, beautiful, green eyes and cute little freckles on my legs. Currently, I live with a small dog and two cats. I feel comfortable around the dog and like that she lets me do my thing. I'm slowly getting to know the cats, too. I love hanging out on my cat tree and playing with my toys - I especially love to play with the wand toy! I also love attention and will let you know with the signature cat head-butt. This usually means I want to have my chin scratched and to snuggle up close. My foster mom says I'm a great "spooner." As for the basics, I got 'em mastered - I use my scratch post and litter box like a champ. We are also making great progress trimming my nails - regular practice and yummy treats has helped me get used to those. I like to take a little time to get to know new people but warm up really fast and will soon be your best friend. I'm definitely social with people and looking for a calm home. As for living with children, I like a little excitement but would prefer to live with children old enough that can be respectful of my space consistently and reliably. Here's an idea of what that would look like: <http://www.catster.com/lifestyle/cats-and-kids-cat-health-care-introducing-cats>. I'm turning out to be quite the catch- come meet me and find out yourself! I can't wait to find my forever home!
