Nine month old Maltese needs a new home to a good family. He's neutered, shots are up to date, knows basic commands(sit, lay down, stay) microchipped, APRI registered, good with kids, very protective, potty trained(pad and outside on grass). He's very energictic and loves to go for walks. Needs a lot of attention. The only reason I'm giving him up is because I'm traveling for work and don't have the time for him anymore. Text preferred but you can call and leave a voicemail and I'll get back with you ASAP. I'm only home on the weekends, if interested contact me at

asking for a rehoming fee of $700, includes kennel, playpen, dog
