Naomi is a very pretty and sweet 1 yr old. She has a sound that she makes and it is really neat to hear. She loves to be pet and loves to play with toys. She loves dog rope toys. The foster she has been staying with has a male 3 yr old and they play real nice together so it does seem she likes having another cat around her but the right introduction would be needed. She has been around kids and seems fine. She is not real fond of being picked up. This young lady would be good in a home with kids who do not pick her up and would pet her nice and play with her toys. She would also be a good champion cat as she does not have to have someone take care of her all day long. She is good to have her food and wait till her owner comes home from work and then she would just LOVE to be pet and hear your stories of the day. Take a look at these pictures and this video and tell me you would want to have her part of your family.
