To start, in return, I offer TFP (digital copy, DVD/CD, whatever), transportation costs (Uber), and, potentially, $. If you need a professional headshot also, that can be included as well. This is not meant to be "sketchy" - just a recent university grad who has been freelancing on a professional basis for a few years, and as I look to move onto the career, I seek to do more personal work, i.e., glamor, fashion, conceptual.

It would be a fairly straightforward shoot. There are several options for outfits and themes, that is, working ideas I have as of now, but, ideally, I would love to have the will-be model's input. This way, also, the shots would also be of value to you also.

No experience necessary, really (some would be helpful). Please do send along at least one head/bust-shot and one full-length shot. Again these shots do not need to be professional - just a clear and fair portrayal of you. In turn I can share my portfolio/web.
