This Jacket Looks Great, is very warm and comfortable, and it just too big for me. Besides, I'm planning on moving to Florida so I won't need it anyway. This was a Christmas Gift and it's just too big for me and like I said, I'm heading to Florida. It looks and feels like soft leather but it's actually got a 100% polyester shell. It's not that pleather stuff. This is a really nice jacket.

I'm willing to let this Jacket go for just $75 cash only please.

No need to ask if it's still available, I'll take down the ad when it is.
