  A group of friends and I are heading up to Stow, ME (across border from Chatham, NH) for a lazy river float. We need someone to pick us up at our house on the morning of Saturday 8/15 and drive us to the river, then pick us up at night and drive us home. To transport our group of 11, you will need 2-3 cars and thus it will either be you and 1-2 friends driving or you making multiple trips. Our house is 10-15 minutes from the river, both from where we start the day and from where we end it.

  Ideally we will work with someone who has 2-3 cars available and thus can take the whole group at once. If you have only one car available, we are still interested in working with you.

  We are offering $100 total for these rides, or $50 each way. Please email or text me if.
