I am a free lance photographer looking for a few Models and experience is not needed, but that can still pull off a nerdy school girl theme and if you have braces that would be awesome!! and if not that still works. Doing a shoot for a big computer company calendar and if all works out their will be more work after also. And all you need is to be 18yrs & older and be easy to work with is a must! Just send basic info about you like your age, height and weight with some pictures. I have over 86 clients in all areas and Pay can start at $40-$170 a half hour paid before shooting. If you like to know more feel free to call me and please don't text me!! yes do e-mail me at Elitemodels4you
