I have a corksport intake and black metal tip/pipe (not shown in pic) for sale, black with red filter and couplers. little dinged up cosmetically but fully functional and worked great. no ap tune required for safety unlike other intakes, although they all benefit from one. really hear the bov with this one, sounds great! Ebay goes for 200+

Yours for 125

Women will want you, men will want to be you. You will be king of the world. If none of that happens, at least you got a cool intake.
