We are currently a family of three (myself and my two sons). I am expecting a baby girl at the end of September. We have a section 8 voucher. According to the guidelines online we qualify for a three bedroom in Merrimack County with rent up to $1320/month (only if all utilities are included, if no utilities are included we would be allowed less for rent... each county has a different allowed budget). My lease now is almost up and we need to get into a bigger place for October 1st. I would prefer a three or four bedroom, and to stay in the concord area but would be willing to relocate to Dover, Rochester, Raymond, Northwood, Nottingham, Deerfield, Hookset, Pembroke, or possibly another area. If you would like to know more please email me any questions you have. Thank.
