

HONEYBEAR THE TABBY NEEDS FOREVER HOME (Bedford, NY)

Location New York

Honeybear lives up to her name! She looks like a little bear because she's rounded and loves to eat but that does not take away from her beauty or her loving side.

Honeybear is also sweet -that's the honey part of her name. She is an adult female approx 4-5 years old and is desperate for attention. When you walk into the cat room, it is Honeybear you will meet first! She will let you know she is there because she wants all the attention on her and as you can see from her pics, she will roll on her back to get it!

Consider adopting this cuddly bear. She needs her own castle to be spoiled in.
Will you be her king or queen?

Email for more info!
Come meet her at Northwind Kennels in Bedford 402 Old Post
