My husband I am have encountered a run of bad luck over the past few years. We have literally lost everything and are now rebuilding but have came up short on our car payments for the past 2 months. We are praying desperatly that someone will read this and be able and willing to loan us $500. We would be able to pay you back $100 a week for 7 weeks paying you an extra $200. I know this is an odd Facebook request but If anyone can help they would be saving us and answering our.
