I have an old friend mid 70's that is sick and may need some help with things around his house , if there is any way to make a connection with a ride up one one morning , and a ride back a day or two later l/we both would appreciate it .

I have no money at all to contribute as things are, but would be open to some barter options if you happen to be located in Ft Collins such as odd job help kinda thing , trade from my flea market items , wash your car , ???

I am 54 , of good character , honest , just need a ride for myself and a mid sized pack of my overnight gear .

Thank
