Texas singer/songwriters want to play in your city, at your house party, or in your venue. Attempting to put together our first, 2 solo artist, tour for this fall, I'm trying to figure out where and when would work best for everyone. The two of us play various instruments and know many of each other's songs, making wherever we play a fun, intimate, and all around dynamic night, or day, or whatever it is you need. We've played everywhere from coffee shops to opening for national acts at sold out venues. We can be background music, openers or the main attraction. Here are some links to our videos and music. We hope to meet you soon.
