Give me a chance I am not brand new i would love a home with someone like you
 I may have been around a bit
 Received by many a blow and by many a kick

Starved and neglected most of my days
 Yet im forgiving anyways
 But now's my chance to start anew
 A home with love that i never knew

So before a kitten you're tempted to pick
 Give me a look, but not too quick
 Look at the character in my face
 And my body, still full of grace

Just think of me, day after day

Watching people look and walk away
 The word "stray" will know
 I'm from with my tags and I'm ready to go
