sending your pets to a shelter because she is pregnant or nursing and you just cant handled it? please don't! you will sign everyones death certificate. we can help!!! I have been rescuing fostering a rehoming since I was a little girl. I have many references and im very educated in animal behavior socialization n finding wonderful forever homes. we don't have a time period for ur babies to find homes they can take as long as they need too.. (most shelters offer 72hr before euthanizing) . for more details comments concerns or questions please email us above. I have referances. im also a supporter with the trn
