looks like you two are headed straight to the rock n roll hall of fame eh? id like a sheet of paper with both your autographs. i gotta take a sh*t later and ill use that as a toilet paper, as I think that sheet of paper will be cheaper than using single ply tp. Why don't ya both get off your mom's basement computer and get a job? do something just decent with your life... not asking ya to get on a stage and make fools of yourselves, that would require some time rehearsing as your musical levels are probably below.
