FASHION DANCE THEATRE DIVERSITY CHARITY

Melange Productions Inc. is a global platform that unites the Bay Area fashion, art, and entrepreneurial communities for the annual production of the Regency Center. Our mission is to celebrate diversity and human rights through fashion and art, and we produce one of the largest international fashion shows in San Francisco, CA.

This year's event will be celebrating the 70th Year Anniversary of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO). UNESCO was founded to develop the "intellectual and moral solidarity of mankind" as a means of building lasting peace. Its pioneering work has helped change the way people everywhere understand each other around the world.

Some of our past partners and designers include: Sephora, Jean Paul Gaultier, Nicole Miller, Ponche of Steven's Creek, Yeddy.com, and more. Melange 2015 featured four looks from Jean Paul Gaultier and designs by Punky Kulture, who has designed for Nicki Minaj, and Mick Jagger.

We will be having several celebrity appearances including:

Katli Khonde: The first African American woman to be featured on Glamour Magazine and Harvard Fashion Seminar Teacher

Bobby Lando: Designed for Lady Gaga and styled for Iggy Azalea, Will.i.am and Astrid Banks
