Skip the apartment waiting list and make this corner of Midtown and Detroit's Cultural Center all yours. Our 1-bed, 1-bath corner unit is located in the Park Shelton, a landmark 1920s-era hotel now converted into a luxury residential community.

The living room windows face the Detroit Institute of Arts (DIA) on one side and face both the Hellenic Museum of Michigan and the College for Creative Studies on the other. Spacious room layouts include an open kitchen, wide entryway, and flexible-use alcoves in the bedroom.

Some of our favorite things about living here:

- Enjoying a sunny afternoon or sunset drinks up on the rooftop terrace
- Not having to leave the building to get hand-crafted coffee, unique gifts, sushi, or a mani-pedi
- Secure and covered parking 24/7
- Getting to know the unbeatable staff, from Deidra in property management to Daryl on late-night security duty (he is one of the most impressive connoisseurs of classic films and Motown hits out of anyone we know)
- Only having to cross the street to reach the DIA, the DIA's Kresge Court & Cafe, the College for Creative Studies, Wayne State University, Detroit Historical Museum, the Detroit Public Library, and Ferry Street's historical houses
- The M-1 light rail line currently being constructed on Woodward will have a major stop right by the Park Shelton, making downtown and the rest of Midtown even easier to reach
