Adorable Bertha was abandoned at a feral colony. She has always been friendly, so she was not born in the colony. She is about ten weeks old and is white and gray tabby (also called tiger) with some orange highlights. She has a sweet, almost dreamy, face. She loves to be held and petted, and rewards you with loud purrs. We are a small group of rescuers. We will talk to you by phone, check vet references if you have them, and, if all goes well, we will deliver the kitten to you. You must pledge to have the kitten spayed and receive shots. We charge no fee but appreciate voluntary contributions to continue our
