I have had Sammy for 3 years. He is neutered and up to date on his Rabies shot.

He is about 9 lbs.

He needs to go with an older person. He is a needy dog who wants all of your attention.

He is adorable and full of love.

He doesn't have any top teeth due to his previous owner. He eats soft food and tiny kibbles (hard) in the New Balance dog food.

He has a ball that a child gave him a couple of years ago and he can NOT live without his ball (smile)

He does NOT like cats or pet birds.

I will ask for vet references

I will ask for personal references

I will want to do a meet and great at your place of residence.

No exceptions.

I love him very much and he is the best dog that I have ever adopted.

Small rehoming fee of 75.00 which includes his food dishes and his food that I have already bought.

Why am I parting with will be your question.

I lost everything I have. I live in a motel and there are no motels that take dogs.

I can't afford to find an apartment right now.

Trust me when I say this, I will probably never be the same without him. He deserves better, I can be homeless and survive.....he needs a stable.
