I'm a producer looking for true stories to turn into movies and scripted TV shows. I just sold a true story I found here on Craigslist to Fox. Do you have a fascinating life story? (Or do you know someone who does?) Has something amazing happened to you? Have you written a memoir? Have there been any articles written about you? If the answer is yes to any of these, shoot me an email and a brief description explaining your story and I'll respond if I think I can help you sell your story to Hollywood. (If your story is tragic, I am not the right producer for that kind of material unfortunately, but I wish you the best.) Thanks!
