

Shopkick is a great way to earn money through gift cards to your favorite stores and you can do it while you do your regular shopping! Save up points and have a giftcard to treat yourself or to even help make the holidays brighter!

1.Go on to your smartphone, open your browser to enter this link to join-

2. When you are going shopping and even just walking through the mall with friends make sure your mobile network and GPS is turned on.

3. There's 5 easy ways to earn points towards your selected gift card.

A. Simply walking into the store (sometimes stores run specials and this can be really high) also if you are walking through the mall sometimes being close enough to the store is good enough to receive your "walk-in" points.

B. Once you've collected your first points for walking into the store there will be a list of items throughout the store for you to scan and collect. For example you're in Walmart and your first item is a box of tissues. And the image is the barcode, the barcode code that your smartphone camera can read. The barcode is the barcode. It's common to register the items and you can do the same thing with the items in the items.

To earn extra points open your Shopkick app each day to automatically earn a few extra points, sometimes a bar with special offers will raise up from the bottom of the page simply click it and go back to the main page to earn a few extra points. It may not seem like much but points add up quickly!

Invite your family and friends. ShopBack offers many incentives for both you and who you invite. You can get anything from matched points, a lump sum of points and many

Do you have a data capable smartphone? Earn gift cards easily back to you (Central Florida). You

---

E. Once you've earned enough points to get the valuation gift card you want simply redeem your points and go shopping to treat yourself or get a jump on birthday or holiday gifts for friends and family.

Turn your normal errands into a chance to get extra money towards your regular and special occasion shopping and welcome to!