Hello everyone. My name is Erica. About a year ago my world fell apart. My parents divorced and where i had to move to i couldnt take my dog. My mom said shed take care of her until i could take her. A few months later i was told she ran away...come to find out my mom gave her to a shelter. They say she was adopted. If you have her please please im begging please contact me. I dont want to take her from you, but I would love to visit and see her. I miss her more than anything. Thank you for your.
