I have five roles left to cast for an online skit series. Two female roles, one age 20's, the other 35+. Three male roles, one age 20's, the other two age 30-50.

Allow me to explain the concept of these skits. So they're all phone conversations, and what will happen is you film your part of the dialogue yourself, your co-star in some other town shoots theirs, and I'll edit it together. So none of us will never even meet.

I'm Matt Antoniades, comedian, from mattantoniades.com. I'm afraid this isn't a paying job, because, like I say, I'm a comedian, and I don't have any cash to pay out. But so long as these vids get a lot of views, you'll get your name and acting talents seen by a bunch of people. And that's not bad.

Let me know if you're interested and I'll get back at you with more details.!
