Want to know the best way to break into the music industry? Here is a wakeup call for you:

Every single week record companies are bombarded with CDs, YouTube and Soundcloud links, countless demos and videos from musicians who are all amazing. Many of these people have invested decades into refining their musical talents to the level they are today and they now just wish/hope that a record company will 'give them an opportunity' to advance their music career.

In reality, the vast number of people who reach out to record companies never get anywhere. Their promo materials most often get thrown in the garbage without ever being opened or seen. Why does this happen and HOW can YOU prevent this from happening to you? I'll tell you in just a moment. . .

On the other hand, there is a small handful of musicians who ARE thriving in their music careers. In reality the process of making a living in music is a pretty straightforward one, IF you know the right things to do. Most people don't get anywhere in this business largely because they follow lots of myths based on conventional thinking - given by people who aren't qualified to talk about the music business.

Here are 7 of these deadly mistakes that most musicians make that end their careers before they even start: <http://Indianapolis.tomhess.net/MusicCareer.aspx>
