Boise Social Club Is A Social Network of Friendly People...

Boise Social Club is a social network of friendly people. If your social network has dried up; If you're out of college and your friends have moved on; If your friends are all married; If you and your significant other are looking for to get out there together; If you're new to the city and haven't made any friends yet; If you've never had many friends at all. Whatever it is, you'll find it here. :)

Singles group? You may be wondering if this is just a singles group... the answer is no. Although 90+% of our members are single, this is not the focus of the group. The group is about making friends and meeting new people. You may even find that, but the focus is that everyone has much more to offer than just being a single. We are a social network of friendly people. If your social network has dried up; If you're out of college and your friends have moved on; If your friends are all married; If you and your significant other are looking for to get out there together; If you're new to the city and haven't made any friends yet; If you've never had many friends at all. Whatever it is, you'll find it here. :)

Boise Social Club Is Also A Fun Activities Group...

We are a fun activities group 90% of our events take place in public venues and you are even welcome to bring a friend if it helps you get comfortable. Activities we do include bowling, billiards, social mixers, ice skating, snow tubing, dodgeball, live music shows, museums, dinners, and many more. Many events are free, some events have a small fee, usually $5 to $10. Once in a while we'll have a more expensive event.
