Seeking a warm and upbeat individual to join the Early Childhood staff of a vibrant and egalitarian Jewish organization in Manhattan as a part-time Art Class Teacher. Position is for 3-4 hours of art class preparation and instruction per week for children 18 months to 4 years (segmented by age), with classes scheduled for Wednesdays beginning September 2015.

What we require:

- Engaging and energetic comfort interacting with young children
- Creativity, resourcefulness, and imagination
- Reliability, responsibility, and ability to collaborate on curriculum development
- Substantive art education, an art degree, and/or experience teaching art in an early childhood setting
- Basic knowledge of Jewish holidays and Jewish calendar (knowledge of very basic Hebrew a plus but really not requisite)
- Experience in early childhood education a big plus, but we will consider all great candidates

Who you should be:

- Someone who truly loves art, kids, and making art with kids!
- A very well-organized and creative individual
- A self-starter who enjoys collaboration
- A great communicator with the ability to interact effectively with parents and connect meaningfully with children
- A problem-solver, able and comfortable in taking ownership of role and responsibilities

Pay for the right person is competitive (starting at $85/hr, possibly higher commensurate with experience). Please reply with your resume and background, and extra points if you start with "Eager Art Educator" so we know you have read the entire ad. Thanks and we look forward to hearing from you!
