Clean leather interior sedan involved in hydroplane incident in November 2014 causing the following knows issues: 1) Front and back cosmetic damage as shown in pictures, 2) Right front frame damage affecting alignment which cannot be fixed until frame work is also done, 3) Non functioning right front headlight (broken bulb, no connection problem), 4) Driver side door does not fully open, opens upto 80% but hasn't affected how I get in or out, 5) AC does not work (suspect coolant empty) but heat works well. Despite these I have been driving this car daily since November w/o issues and I suspect that given its strong engine and otherwise well maintained mechanics and transmission, it will continue to drive reliably but wont look pretty doing so. The alignment issue is the probably the worst damage sustained but it hasn't affected how the car drives once you get used to the steering off center. It has very clean leather interiors, working radio, CD player and valid clean title. Looking to sell to local folks only, no trades, cash only and no help needed selling. Recent oil change. Priced to sell. Thanks for
