Hi, I am a 31 male grad student at PSU looking for an apartment/room in inner NE or SE Portland preferrably. I'm quite busy with school so don't spend too much time at home but looking to live with kind, clean, open and accepting people (or person) and try to be one myself. I really appreciate a clean kitchen and I like to share food with roommates and delight in dinner parties. I spend a lot of time reading, writing and biking. I'd like to find a place by October 1 at the latest and would be open for a September move in. Thanks.
