I'm a 26 year old drummer living in the east Bay Area in California, but soon moving to San Jose, CA. I'm posting in the Philadelphia Craigslist, because Fuck California, you guys have the best punk scene in the country right now. I'd gladly move to be in a serious band coming from this area.

I've played drums for thirteen years, and have spent the last eight of those years playing in punk bands that have gotten plenty of recording and touring experience under my belt.

I have professional gear, I'm employed, and will soon have a car to get around a little bit easier, and will have a second drumset as well. I've toured and open for bands like - AFI, Tiger Army, the story so far, Ceremony, Nails, Cro Mags, No Use For a Name, Dead To Me, Broadway Calls, Hour Of The Wolf, I am the Avalanche and countless others. My last band was also signed to Adeline Records (Green Day, Broadway Calls, AFI).

I'm currently in a band called Paper Thin, but I'm looking to join something a bit more Active while I stay in that band. I'll be moving in with my girlfriend in San Jose soon, and will be cutting back to a part time schedule to focus on music.

I'm interested in serious inquiries only, and I'm only interested in the goal of being in a solid band with good songs that will hit the fucking road and do it for real.

Here are some links to the records I've done in order of old to current.
