We are two people who need a drummer. We had one, but we kind of had a difference of opinion. Our opinion was that he didn't cooperate with anything we tried to do; he disagreed. We play everything. Like from Misfits to blink-182 to Dave Matthews (I know). About us: we just like to get together and jam. We are both working professional jobs but seek fame and fortune. Or fun. Whatever comes our way. Just want to do something different. Both of us play guitar; one not terrible on bass. We like to practice or record in a studio and its awesome. They even have drums there. You don't need to provide your own. About you: You play drums. And you're cool. I feel like that expresses everything. So, if you're just looking to jam or maybe go further and see what develops, then hit us up. We also have a guy who plays piano. Seems relevant. But, yeah...hit us.
