DESCRIPTIONOn a quiet side street, two blocks from the Vermont State Capital or Hubbard Park and three from Montpelier High School, this turn of the century gem has been completely renovated with its original and historic character maintained. An open floor plan downstairs is perfect for entertaining or just staying in. With three bedrooms and an office upstairs, there is room for everyone. The stand-up attic has plenty of storage and the dry basement is perfect for a workshop. A small back yard provides room for a garden or green space without much maintenance. Improvements to the home include all-new wiring, new paint inside and out, refinished wood floors throughout, new custom kitchen (with an island,
