Harmless Wife or husband Relief: This option is an IRS taxes relief plan in which a spouse can claim lack of knowledge of the understatement of owed IRS taxes.

Payment Contract: This kind of solution is a legal contract involving the taxpayer and also the IRS in which the taxpayer confirms to make regular month-to-month payments to the IRS.

Penalty Abatement: This solution is an IRS plan in which the IRS minimizes several or the entire accumulated penalty charges from the tax debt.

Offer in Compromise: This solution is a legal contract involving the taxpayer as well as IRS which allows the taxpayer to pay back their tax debt for under the exact amount due.

Currently Not Collectible: This specific option would be a plan proposed by the IRS for tax payers encountering economic hardship.

IRS Appeals: This alternative will help a tax payer who doesn't agree with all the evaluated tax debt total amount, or the IRS' determination of their IRS strategy application follow through the appeal process.

Compliance: This kind of alternative may include many different factors, similar to filing unfiled returns, re-filing Substitute Returns filed by the IRS, educating taxpayers that may help keep away from filing mistakes in future several years.
