If you looking to actually use this, you'll probably need to refurbish it a little bit. The metal ring that indicates the score value of each section is not very securely in clipped into the board, so the fasteners would need to be swapped out or adjusted.

But if you're looking for an old school, heavy duty looking dart board that just looks really cool up on a wall, then this works fine as is.

Local pick up in Capital Hill only. Price is firm.
