Hello! This may seem a bit unorthodox but I want to trade babysitting services for the same. As in I'm looking for a single mother that doesnt have anybody to watch their kid(s) when they want to go out with friends, or date night etc. to then watch mine when I want to do the same. Basically, barter babysitting. I will pre-screen before making this a normal thing between us, since there are kids involved. Let me know if you're!
