I'm interested in finding at least one more person interested in getting together regularly for some casual baseball practice and maybe some simple games(home run derby, etc). I'm a 33 year old lifelong fan of the game, but all of my baseball friends have either moved away, lost interest in the game or have gotten too busy to go out and play. My interest in the game has never waned, thus I would like to find someone else who is interested in joining me.

I have always gravitated towards pitching, and of course everyone loves to bat, so finding someone that is willing to pitch to me, that I can also pitch to as well, would be great. I would also love to get in some fielding practice as well, and likewise if you're interested.

A few weeks ago I had the chance to face a live pitcher for the first time in years, and it really brought back the baseball bug for me, hence this post.

I have bats, gloves and tons of baseballs, so the basics at least are covered. I live in San Ramon, and we have some really nice local fields here, but I'm willing to travel to Dublin or Pleasanton as well. My schedule is pretty flexible these days, so I can work around your schedule as needed.

Please feel free to send me an email if you're interested in talking further or if you have any questions..
