As an actress, singer or model you are in one of the most competitive fields. For every one that makes it, there are millions that don't. How do you stand out? How do you find that edge? The truth is that it's not just about talent and looks, as they are only 10% of the early success formula. In fact there is an abundance or oversupply of talent in every city. Each casting notice can easily bring over 500 headshots in just a few hours.

So, how do you find that edge? That's where I can help you.

To be considered for a free session, please reply to all points below:

- 2) Your age?
- 3) What exactly do you do now?

this process they learn how to be empowered and nail auditions even before they walk into the room and ultimately become the success that they envision.

Some call me "the wish fulfilling genie" and I don't mind that title, others "Master Sam," regardless you'll be a success once I decide to work with you. Please make sure to answer all the questions above when you email me.

Why am I on Craigslist? Since CL is the main bulletin board these days, it's a good medium to reach out to young talent in the entertainment community. My aim is to help select young, aspiring talent in LA who normally wouldn't have access to or couldn't afford this level of coaching which is essential for success. This is totally legit.
