My husband and I are HUGE Disneyland fans but the one place still left unexplored for us is Club 33. We have asked everyone we know for the last 6 years with no avail so we are looking for some help with getting a reservation for the elusive Club 33. Because we both have premium annual passes, we are open to go ANY DAY. We understand it is a large responsibility to invite strangers using your membership, but we are outstanding citizens and pass holders who would never abuse the privilege of entering such a holy place (we can produce references to prove our honorable intentions). Perhaps you have a membership but don't have anyone to dine with? We would love the company and would love to even hang out for the day at Disneyland! We are willing to pay whatever amount you deem reasonable. Thank!
