Hi! My name is Annie Karner, I'm 15 years old, and I recently raised $800 dollars to make a movie called Especially Yours, a movie about a young man in the US Army who experiences a major tragedy and has to deal with the emergence of Obsessive-Compulsive Disorder. This project is essentially my baby, as I have put everything I have into making this happen. Unfortunately, we have had several, and I mean several, bumps along the way, from lead actors dropping out to people not showing up to filming. However, for the second time, my new lead actor playing the title role of Specialist Sam Nash, dropped out today, and we have no other options. We need a teen male aged 14-18 to play this role. Unfortunately, as this is very low-budget and we are only juniors in high school, we cannot pay anything for this role. However, it is a great experience and can be put on your resume and in your college portfolio. I will offer more details if you are interested. We are desperate. People paid 800 dollars to see this happen, and we have no other options but to ask the public. If you are interested, please send a picture of the person who would like to play the role to

, and a short description. We are looking for anyone, acting experience or no acting experience. We are also considering entering the film into festivals, so this could be a terrific start to your!
