

Pasture for Ducks (Kansas city area)

I am a vegetable Farmer and waterfowl rancher looking for a small pasture for a flock of ducks maybe my goose/geese for security and potentially my incredibly laid back and independent pyreneese guardian dog and a tent for myself at times. Whether for my 50 layers or my hundred ducklings or both i only need a half an acre or so to keep them though a rotational system would be preferable. I have fencing and they can't fly at all. I have moved to the KC area to pursue my girlfriend unto marraige (i hope) and my flock back home in illinois is suffering casualties due to lack of good management so i would like to bring them closer to me. I would also like to find space to grow some vegetables if possible as well and would love to share both veggies and eggs with neighbors. I do have jobs for cash that i do in the area with skills in construction, maintenance and landscaping aside from farming and i'd be happy to help out around the farm that might welcome.
