Singing lessons offered!

10 years of training in classical, r&b, pop, contemporary styles as well as choral training!

Currently recording/performing in Las Vegas with my self titled band. I sing and write r&b/soul music but have tons of experience with technical training and am open to teaching and working with all styles. Studied at Berklee College of Music, then worked in Los Angeles with different producers and writers in the industry.

Available to instruct one on one classes with students on various vocal techniques, breathing exercises, tone, phrasing, song selection, music terminology, songwriting, music technology, recording knowledge, and performance. I also have many connections to instrumentalists, venues, and videographers for my students.

Would love to get a group of students going for weekly sessions! I have about 12 students at the moment that study with me weekly. I would host all the lessons, keyboard and microphone are provided as well. Lessons held at students home are also provided with an extra fee.

45 min sessions-$40
