I currently have one bedroom available in large four bedroom home in Williston. The house is very quiet and tidy and perfect for a young professional or grad student looking for a quiet and affordable place close to Burlington. There is plenty of parking including a two car garage that is alternated with the other tenants. All utilities minus internet and electric are included in the monthly rent.

The room available is quite spacious and has an L shaped floor pattern. The room shares the full bath across the hall with two other tenants. There is also a half bath on the main floor. All common areas are shared and there is plenty of largely unused space on the main floor to make your own. Please contact me via email or text to arrange a.
