hello, we are currently a 3pc band looking to add a keyboard player and eventually another guitarist. we are putting together a show of Progressive rock, mostly from the early 70s, to promote as a tribute act. we are currently practicing 1 night a week in Pasadena and looking to gig about every 6 weeks in better rooms like Rams Head etc. we have recorded a rough demo from our last practice and posted some samples as a medley here: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=jj4efggwsB4> we will put together a set a more comprehensive set list with everyone's input after all the pieces are in place.

we would like to find someone who really likes this style of music and who has the skills and the time to learn the parts. vocals/horn/guitar skills are welcome but not required. feel free to contact us with any questions, thanks for
