Hi there. A little about myself: I'm not the "pro session drummer available" who has a drum studio at home in LA for online session tracks. I am a real, in-the-flesh Detroit/metro drummer who can work with you to develop songs. I work menial, part-time jobs that allow me the flexibility to keep music going in my life while I scrape by. Sure I could complain, but making music is "my calling" if you will. When I see the way my friends' lives can be dominated by jobs or school, I'm grateful that it is still possible for me to practice every week with my bands and feel that feeling...connectivity, the zone. Money don't buy that feeling.

I have always enjoyed session drumming, but have devoted most of my non-working time to work with my own bands. Right now I'm trying to transition into making more music professionally.

Here's what I've got:

- Feel - natural time, looser than tight, metronome friendly
- Ear - fast learner, love improv, good ear for developing songs
- Fusion - draw from many genres, specializing in funky/jazz/hip hop/rock/soul
- Take direction - do you want a raucous Keith Moon style? Questlove tight?

Have transportation, great gear
 I can record and produce. Here's a link to my band's released:

 I can schedule my time depends on your schedule only...I've posted similar in the past and got a lot of requests to join my band. Sorry, don't have the time!

One thing I don't do is double kick drum stuff. Mighty is pretty capable, though.
 10 yrs. experience

Please give me a shout if you need some drums for your recording. I'd love to work with an original singer/songwriter. I can also do some backing vocals if.
