A pair of his and hers Cabelas Alaskan Guide Series down sleeping bags. One is a long in length, the other a regular. These are the square version, not the worthless mummy style. Both rated -40 and believe me, they keep you warm to -20...I've been there. Look them up at Cabelas.com they sell new for 450.00 each. These are the older bags (3 years old) and reviews place them higher than the new ones due to new design. Selling as a set or individually. I'll sell the pair for 550 or individually for 300. Both like new, freshly dry cleaned. Prices are OBO. Laurel
