looking for a drummer who wants to write and play raw, *heavy*, sorta punkish music. the idea is to play original songs with maybe an occasional cover for fun. my influences sound like Nirvana, The Melvins, Pissed Jeans, Ty Segall (Melted album), Scratch Acid, L7, Sonic Youth, Trans Am, Shellac, The Pixies, Big Black, Whale, and the like. age is not a big factor but it'd be better if you're over 21. and before you respond: if you can't be bothered to communicate or make time to actually play music, just do us both a favor and fuck right off. i hate sounding like that, but seriously folks. if you really want to rock and roll, it's not that hard.

punk rock means freedom. if you're into it, let's meet up and talk music..
