Hello!

I am a canine loving, kitty cuddling, friendly and reliable man available to sit your pet for you while you enjoy doing other wonderful things that may require a little more alone time from your furry friend! I have a dog of my own whom I love and have taken care of for the past two years. I trained him myself and he is very well behaved and a wonderful creature. I am compassionate, honest, and reliable while being responsible for these awesome animals!

Feel free to call or txt me if you'd like to talk to me or set up an interview to discuss details or possible opportunities to work together.

Thank you,

Michael V.
