I have a 9 month male, blue nose pit named Mason. I work both a full and part time job and a lot of times I'm out of the house from 7:30am to 10pm, on top of that I'm looking to move and many places i'm looking at do not accept dogs. Unfortunately, i don't have the time to give Mason the attention he deserves. He's a great dog, needs someone who has the time to actually care for him. He's active but he is a jumper. If you're new to him he will jump on you as he does love to play. He has his shots but he is not nuetured.

If you're interested and/or have any questions feel free to text me, as I'm usually working so texting works.
