Looking for a woman 21-30 with a sense of curiosity, adventure and humor, open to new experiences, new people, new friendships who thinks she might be able to inspire a creative older gentleman. I'm looking for a special kind of spark and energy, a good conversationalist, a creative and outgoing free-spirit that's always looking at ways she can be better and who values people who can bring out the best in each other.

Time spent might be anything our imaginations come up with that contributes to written, theatrical, or musical creativity. Strong possibilities are developing screenplays for movies and development of non-fiction/reality television programming. Music/music videos for contemporary instrumental music is also a strong possibility. Lesser so with visual art. Preference given to those with experience or interest in acting, film, psychology, writing, music.

Pay is $25 per hour and days and times are flexible to your schedule. As this reaching out is basically intuitive I have no concrete plan for how this will work, but I would think for the near future I envision meeting up at my home studio (smoke and pet free for those with allergies) for 2-3 hours per week, maybe more depending on how it goes. Please respond with a pic and a few words about why this might work for you? btw...no romance or sex will be asked, expected or required...wish I didn't have to say that but it's kind of the elephant in the room with an ad like this.

Thanks for reading and hope you're having a good.
