You don't have to stress yourself out because of your bad credit situation. There is another alternative out there for you. I can start you over fresh with a clean credit score.

This is how it works:

1. I get you a new file in 10mins to 2hrs
2. I get you an approval from Cap1 for $300 to $500 in 10min to 2hrs
3. I email it to you and show you the number and approval code
4. You pay $100 by the end of the business Day

Now you have to add tradelines to your new file so you can get approved for some credit cards over $300 to $500 when you add trades. You should start off adding 2-3 trades to your new file.

This will add credit history to your new file and creditors will give you credit base on the amount of the trades. Thats how you get $5000 credit cards or better.

If you are ready to begin a fresh credit history
